

Miriam Njoku

Author, Coach, Speaker

Miriam was born and raised in Cameroon. She immigrated to Switzerland as a teenager. With a background in international political economy, Miriam pursued a diverse career in private banking and international development, before turning her focus to writing first on her blog about family, intergenerational trauma and parentification and later on her coming-of-age memoir, Child of the Grasslands.

SIGNATURE TOPICS

- ✓ Writer of the upcoming memoir Child of the Grasslands
- ✓ Podcaster
- ✓ Trauma -Informed Coach
- ✓ Mental Health Advocate

GET IN TOUCH

Please feel free to contact me for media, press releases, interviews, and book publishing.

✉ hello@miriamnjoku.com

🌐 miriamnjoku.com

Child of the Grasslands

MEMOIR

Child of the Grasslands is a captivating coming-of-age memoir that takes you on a transformative journey through Cameroon, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom. Born into a polygamous family, a young Cameroonian girl defies tradition, grapples with life's challenges, and finds her strength through curiosity, education, and reading. This poignant tale of resilience and self-discovery will touch your heart and inspire you to embrace your unique voice amidst the chaos of life.

If you were moved by "Somebody's Daughter," enchanted by "Falling in the Most Peculiar Way," or captivated by "Aftershocks," this extraordinary memoir is a must-read that will resonate deeply with your heart and soul.

"When a child is hurt and betrayed, first they distrust themselves, and then they distrust others."

Miriam Njoku